DEAR VALUED SHAREHOLDER

Year 2014 was a difficult year unlike any other in our history, as we had to contend with the ongoing political uncertainty in two of the Group's key markets, Russia and Ukraine, which led to the substantial depreciation of the Russian Ruble and Ukrainian Hryvnia against our reporting currency, the US dollar. While expectations were high that 2014 would be a good year for Russia with the hosting of the Sochi Winter Olympic Games in February, the year turned out to be an extraordinarily turbulent year for Russia and Ukraine, and Food Empire naturally.

FINANCIAL OVERVIEW

Revenue for the financial year ended 31 December 2014 ("FY2014") was US$249.5 million, a year-on-year ("yoy") decline of 5.1% compared with the US$262.9 million revenue recorded in FY2013. The Group registered a net loss of US$13.6 million for FY2014, compared with a profit after tax of US$11.3 million in FY2013. Excluding the impact of foreign exchange losses, net profit after tax for FY2014 would have been US$15.6 million. Our performance was also impacted by an impairment loss charge of US$3 million on the Group's brand - Petrovskaya Sloboda, costs relating to start-ups, developing new markets and one-off corporate restructuring.

During the year, the Group made a profit warning to SGX in relation to a net loss for 1Q2014, due to the ongoing political standoff between two of the Group's key markets namely Russia and Ukraine, which began in late 2013 and quickly escalated into an international crisis by March 2014. This as well as the weakening oil prices resulted in a sharp devaluation of both the Russian Ruble and the Ukrainian Hryvnia against

EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

US dollar especially in the last quarter of the year. The adverse movements in the Russian Ruble and the Ukrainian Hryvnia continued to impact the Group negatively for the full year. In FY2014, the Russian Ruble weakened from 32.7 Ruble per US dollar on 31 December 2013 to 56.3 Ruble per US dollar on 31 December 2014. Over the same period, Ukrainian Hryvnia weakened from 8.24 Hryvnia to 15.8 Hryvnia per US dollar.

UPHOLDING OUR BRAND

At Food Empire, we recognise the value of brand equity, both as a competitive advantage and a driver of future growth.

In July 2014, the Group was named as one of Singapore's top SGX-listed brands and ranked 63 amongst the top 100 SGX-listed companies by Brand Finance. The study highlights Singapore companies which have capitalised on their intangible assets and brands to create greater enterprise value. Based on the ranking methodology employed, Food Empire improved its previous rankings of 64, 67 and 94 in 2013, 2012 and 2011 respectively. In addition, Food Empire maintained its brand rating of AA in 2014 which Brand Finance defines as "very strong".

Going forward, we will continue to focus on building brand equity and instill such brand values in our people and corporate culture.

INTEGRATING ACROSS THE VALUE CHAIN

We have embarked on upstream green-field projects in the past few years to give us greater control over the supply and production of raw materials, and to stabilise and upkeep our high standards of quality. The Group's non-dairy creamer plant, snack factory and the beverage manufacturing facility in Malaysia have all commenced commercial production. With all the relevant certifications, including Halal certification, in place, the Group would bring up the utilisation levels of the plants and intensify marketing efforts in FY2015 to achieve greater market acceptance.

We expect to ramp up our production for the non-dairy creamer plant significantly in 2015. As for the snack factory to produce potato crisp, we hope to increase production from a single shift to three shifts by end of 2015.

The Group's instant coffee plant in India is on track for completion and is expected to commence commercial production by the second half of 2015. The instant coffee plant when fully utilised will be able to produce about 4,500 tons of instant coffee.

OUTLOOK

The year in 2015 is set to pose challenges to the Russian and Ukrainian economies and most of the Commonwealth Independent States due to the close economic relationships and the state of the ruble exchange with these countries being part of the Custom Union. The weak oil prices and the political conflict between Russia and Ukraine will continue to weigh negatively on the Group. As the Group is economically exposed to both markets, it is negatively affected by the revaluation of its outstanding trade receivables denominated in currencies other than the US dollar. Our Group have taken necessary actions to monitor credit policy, control cost and rationalise our operations. It will continue to monitor the situation and take relevant actions.

Our Group will continue to diversify geographically. Its effort in South East Asia region, China and Middle East is seeing some results and we shall built on this.

The building at 81 Playfair Road is expected to receive its TOP certification in the first half of 2015. It is integrated with our current HQ building and upon completion, the combined development would be named Food Empire Building and the new block would yield around 26,000 sqft net lettable area. We have secured rental lease for 75% of the new area.

We are confident that we will be able to navigate our way through the current difficult situation, by virtue of our strong brands, loyal customers and prudent management. We have to uphold our mantra which is to be a leading global food and beverage company providing quality products and services. We will achieve this goal as we have the right people with the passion to make the difference.

APPRECIATION

It is especially in such difficult times like this that we need to acknowledge the support and confidence that all our stakeholders have given and continue to have in us.

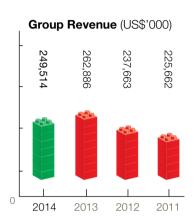

I am thankful to our shareholders for keeping faith with us knowing that their confidence will be repaid in the long run. Our customers, suppliers, partners and associates have been an integral part of our long journey and we know that we will weather the storm together. Lastly, the commitment and hard work of our Board members and staff will allow us to emerge even stronger from the current situation.

CEO'S MESSAGE

"IN THE MID-TO-LONG TERM, OUR DIVERSIFICATION EFFORTS BEYOND THE CIS REGION WILL PROVIDE US WITH A MORE BALANCED PORTFOLIO THAT ALLOWS US TO BE RESILIENT IN ANY FUTURE CRISIS."

DEAR SHAREHOLDERS,

2014 marks my second year as the CEO of Food Empire and it has been a pleasure working with a team of extremely committed and passionate colleagues on existing and new projects to drive the Company forward.

For FY2014, revenue was US$249.5 million, representing a year-on-year ("yoy") decline of 5.1% compared with the US$262.9 million revenue recorded in FY2013. The Group recorded a net loss of US$13.6 million last year as compared to a profit after tax of US$11.3 million in FY2013 mainly due to the substantial depreciation of the currencies of its two largest markets, Russia and Ukraine against the US dollar which is the Group's reporting currency. Apart from foreign exchange losses, the net loss was also due to increased staff costs; oneoff provision for staff compensation due to corporate restructuring; costs associated with investments in new markets; start-up costs associated with the Group's upstream projects; and an impairment loss charge on the Group's brand - Petrovskaya Sloboda. Excluding the impact of foreign exchange losses, net profit after tax for FY2014 would have been US$15.6 million.

CEO'S MESSAGE

MacCoffee sponsors Oddset Ice Hockey Games 2014

I will like to present our report card on the three key areas that I mentioned previously that I will be putting a strong emphasis on as CEO.

With regards to our plans to grow the Group's geographic presence, Food Empire's diversification in some markets, in particular Asia is showing progress in recent years. Sales to the Group's Other Markets grew by 41.3% from US$26.7 million in FY2013 to US$37.8 million in FY2014. The robust performance was underpinned by a significant increase in beverage sales in South East Asia which accounted for over 50% of the growth. An uptick in sales was also recorded in Europe, China and the Middle East. In the mid-to-long term, our diversification efforts beyond the CIS region will provide us with a more balanced portfolio that allows us to be resilient in any future crisis.

In terms of merger or acquisition (M&A) activities, we continue to be on the lookout for suitable target companies that could complement our existing businesses and help to diversify our operations. In view of the current uncertain geo-political situation, we will exercise caution and M&A will not be a key priority for us till the situation normalises.

With respect to the streamlining and restructuring of our operations, we continue to make significant headway. The Group in year 2011 bought into a property in Port Klang in Malaysia for the purpose of setting up a packing plant and annexed administration processing centre.

MacCoffee promo booth in Kazakhstan

The Group just recently managed to get the approval for the International Procurement Centre status which will allow the Group to enjoy a 10 year-tax exemption status provided the terms and conditions are met. During the year, production started and the shift from the Singapore Chin Bee plant was also completed by October 2014.

The Group also purchased an adjacent piece of land at No. 81 Playfair Road, next to our current Singapore HQ office towards end of December 2011. During the year 2014, intensive development work took place and today, we are witnessing the completion of the 11th storey building. TOP certification is expected anytime in the first half of 2015 and the process of looking for new tenants has started.

Going forward, we will continue to monitor the geopolitical situation closely and take a prudent approach towards our business operations. Nevertheless, we remain optimistic that we will tide through this difficult period with the help of our dedicated team.

I am very grateful for the support of my colleagues, the Board, shareholders and other partners, as we continue to execute on our future plans.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

For FY2014, the Group recorded a net loss of US$13.6 million as compared to a profit after tax of US$11.3 million in FY2013 mainly due to the substantial depreciation of the currencies of its two largest markets, Russia and Ukraine against the US dollar which is the Group's reporting currency.

In FY2014, sales to the Group's largest region, Russia, decreased by 10.6% to US$136.7 million compared to US$152.9 million in FY2013 due to weakening of Russian Ruble against US dollar. In the Group's Ukraine region, sales declined by 24.4% from US$35.3 million in FY2013 to US$26.7 million in FY2014 due to weakening of Ukrainian Hryvnia against the US dollar. In the Group's Kazakhstan region and CIS countries, sales increased by 0.9% from US$47.9 million in FY2013 to US$48.4 million in FY2014. Sales to the Group's Other Markets grew by 41.3% from US$26.7 million in FY2013 to US$37.8 million in FY2014. The robust performance was underpinned by a significant increase in beverage sales in South East Asia which accounted for over 50% of the growth. An uptick in sales was also recorded in Europe, China and the Middle East. Our non-dairy creamer plant and snack factory in Malaysia, which commenced commercial production during FY2014, has yet to contribute meaningfully to Group Sales.

The ongoing political uncertainty in two of the Group's key markets, Russia and Ukraine continued to weigh negatively on the exchange rate of the Russian Ruble and Ukrainian Hrvvnia against the US dollar.

Apart from foreign exchange losses, the net loss was also due to the following: -

- 1. Staff costs increased due to higher salaries and higher headcount arising from restructuring of our Russian operation and newly set up factories.
- One-off provision for staff compensation due to corporate restructuring.
- 3. Costs associated with investments in new markets.
- Start-up costs associated with the Group's upstream projects.
- Impairment loss charge on the Group's brand -Petrovskaya Sloboda.

Property, plant and equipment increased from US$61.5 million as at 31 December 2013 to US$66.6 million as at 31 December 2014 mainly attributable to the capitalisation of the building, plant and machineries of the Group's India upstream project.

Inventories increased from US$43.0 million as at 31 December 2013 to US$45.7 million as at 31 December 2014, because of the stock-up of inventories.

Trade payables and accruals increased from US$31.3 million as at 31 December 2013 to US$35.5 million as at 31 December 2014, in line with the increase in inventories.

Investment in associates decreased from US$14.8 million as at 31 December 2013 to US$10.7 million as at 31 December 2014 mainly due to translation loss recorded in Russian associates.

Trade receivables decreased from US$51.5 million as at 31 December 2013 to US$40.4 million as at 31 December 2014 mainly due to translation loss of its outstanding trade receivables denominated in currencies other than the US dollar.

The Group's borrowings were US$41.6 million as at 31 December 2014, compared to US$32.3 million as at 31 December 2013. This increase was largely attributed to additional loans taken up for the Group's upstream projects and its investment property at 81 Playfair Road.

There are three Board Committees:-

- Audit Committee ("AC")
- Remuneration Committee ("RC")
- Nominating Committee ("NC")

Other matters which specifically require the full Board's decisions are those involving conflicts of interests of a substantial shareholder or a Director, material acquisitions and disposal of assets, corporate or financial restructuring and share issuances, dividends and other returns to shareholders.

The Board conducts scheduled meetings on a quarterly basis. Ad-hoc meetings are convened as and when circumstances require.

B) BOARD COMPOSITION AND GUIDANCE (cont'd)

- Principle 2: Strong and independent element of the Board (cont'd)

The Directors of the Board review the size and composition of the Board on an annual basis. The Board continues to have a strong and independent element.

The core competencies of the Board members are as follows:-

	Accounting/ Finance/ Business/ Management Experience	Industry Knowledge	Strategic Planning	Human Resource	Law
Tan Wang Cheow		$\sqrt{}$	√
Sudeep Nair		$\sqrt{}$	√
Tan Guek Ming	$\sqrt{}$	$\sqrt{}$	$\sqrt{}$

Ong Kian Min	V		√
Boon Yoon Chiang		√	V	V	$\sqrt{}$

Koh Yew Hiap	V	√	√

The Directors are professionals in their own fields with industrial, financial, legal and human resource backgrounds. Together they provide the Group with a wealth of knowledge, expertise and experience to ensure the Group remains competitive and competent. The Non-executive Directors contribute their independent views and objective judgments on issues of strategy, business performance, resources and standards of conduct.

The independence of each Independent Non-executive Director is assessed at least annually by the NC. Particular scrutiny is applied in assessing the continued independence of Directors having served beyond 9 years from the date of his first appointment.

Although Mr. Lew Syn Pau, Mr. Ong Kian Min and Mr. Boon Yoon Chiang have served on the Board for more than nine years, the Board considered that they are independent in character and judgment as there are no circumstances which would likely affect or appear to affect their judgment. Their length of service and in-depth knowledge of the Group's businesses are viewed by the Board as especially valuable. While recognising the benefits of the experience and stability brought by long-standing Directors, the Board remains committed to the progressive renewal of board membership.

The NC is of the view that the current Board has the necessary competencies, skills and attributes to meet the Group's targets and to respond to the demands facing the Group.

The NC is also of the view that the current Board size of eight Directors is appropriate, taking into account the nature and scope of the Company's operations.

C) CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

- Principle 3: Clear division of responsibilities at the top of the Company

The Executive Chairman, Mr. Tan Wang Cheow, is primarily responsible for formulating of the Group's strategies, which includes developing new markets, exploring opportunities for acquisitions as well as enhancing in-house production capabilities.

The CEO, Mr. Sudeep Nair, is responsible for overseeing the overall management, planning and execution of the Group's business and marketing strategies.

The Executive Chairman is also responsible for representing the Board to shareholders, ensuring that Board meetings are held when necessary, setting the Board meeting agendas and ensuring that the Board members are provided with adequate and timely information. Regular meetings are scheduled to enable the Board to perform its duties. Agendas are prepared in consultation with management as well as the Company Secretary.

Although the Chairman is part of the management team, the NC and the Board were of the view that appointing a lead Independent Director was not necessary, as all the Board Committees are chaired by an Independent Director and the majority comprises Independent Directors, are available to receive and deal with any complaints or issues.

D) BOARD MEMBERSHIP

- Principle 4: Formal and transparent process of appointment of new Directors

The NC comprises:-

Mr. Lew Svn Pau

Dates of last re-election/re-appointment

Directors	Date of last re-election/re-appointment
Ong Kian Min	23 April 2013
Hartono Gunawan	23 April 2014
Koh Yew Hiap	23 April 2014

Lew Syn Pau	23 April 2013
Sudeep Nair	23 April 2013
Boon Yoon Chiang	23 April 2014
Tan Wang Cheow	27 April 2012

The NC had reviewed the multiple-board seats held by the Directors to determine if they had been adequately carrying out their duties as a Director of the Company. Though some of the Directors have multiple-board representations, the NC is satisfied that the Directors have devoted sufficient time and attention to the Company. The Board does not think that it is necessary to set the maximum number of listed board representations that any Director may hold as all the Directors are able to devote to the Company's affairs in light of their commitments.

The NC is responsible for identifying and recommending new Board members, after considering the necessary and desirable competencies. The NC may engage consultants to undertake research on, or to assess a candidate for new positions on the Board. The NC can engage other independent experts if it considers it necessary to help it carry out its duties and responsibilities. Recommendations for new Board members are put to the Board for its consideration.

E) BOARD PERFORMANCE

- Principle 5: Formal assessment of the effectiveness of the Board and contributions of each Director

The NC has formulated an evaluation process for assessing the effectiveness of the Board and its Committees and the contributions of each Director. The assessment parameters include:

E) BOARD PERFORMANCE (cont'd)

- Principle 5: Formal assessment of the effectiveness of the Board and contributions of each Director (cont'd)

The Board's evaluation process is performed annually.

The Board is of the view that the financial parameters recommended by the Code as performance criteria for the evaluation of Directors do not fully measure the contributions Directors make to the long-term success of the Company.

F) ACCESS TO INFORMATION

- Principle 6: Board members to have complete, adequate and timely information

In order to ensure that the Board is able to fulfill its responsibilities, management provides the Board members with periodic updates of the latest developments in the Group, accounts, reports and other financial information. The Directors have been provided with the contact particulars of the Company's senior management staff and the Company Secretary to facilitate access. The Directors are informed and are aware that they may take independent professional advice at the Company's expense, where necessary, in furtherance of their duties.

The Company Secretary or his representatives will attend all Board and Board Committee meetings. They are responsible for ensuring that Board procedures are followed and that the Company has complied with the requirements of the Companies Act, Chapter 50 and the SGX-ST Listing Manual.

G) REMUNERATION MATTERS (cont'd)

- Principle 7: Formal and transparent procedure for fixing remuneration packages of Directors (cont'd)
- Principle 8: Remuneration of Directors should be adequate but not excessive (cont'd)
- Principle 9: Remuneration policy, level and mix of remuneration and procedure for setting remuneration (cont'd)

The Non-executive Directors receive directors' fees, in accordance with their contributions, taking into account factors such as responsibilities, effort and time spent for serving on the Board and Board Committees. The directors' fees are subject to final approval by the shareholders at the Annual General Meeting.

There is no change in the existing remuneration package for the Executive and Non-executive Directors compared to the previous year. All Directors, including Non-executive Directors, who are not the controlling shareholders of the Group or are not appointed by the controlling shareholders of the Group, were eligible for share options under the current share option scheme. Additional information on the previous and current share option schemes can be found on pages 41 to 45 and 115 to 119 of the annual report.

Although the Code recommends the disclosure of the name of the individual Directors and at least the top five key executives (who are not the Directors of the Group) within the bands of $$250,000 and a breakdown (in percentage terms) of each Directors remuneration, the Board has decided not to adopt this practice because it is of the view that such disclosure may be detrimental to the Group's interest as it may lead to poaching of executives within a highly competitive industry.

Remuneration Bands S$500,000 to S$699,999 S$250,000 to S$499,999 Below S$250,000	No. of Directors in Remuneration Bands  1  6

The Group undertakes ongoing efforts to increase sales by increasing sales in other existing markets and by developing new markets, which over time will reduce its dependency on the Russian market.

Foreign Exchange Exposure

The Group is subject to foreign exchange risk arising mainly from those sales, purchases and operating costs by operating units denominated in currencies other than the operating units' functional currency. Approximately 2.1% of the Group's sales are denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the operating units making the sales. Traditionally, the Group has relied upon natural hedging to protect itself against volatile foreign exchange rate movements. In view of changes in the Group's business processes, the Group has become more exposed to exchange risk. In FY2014, the Group has a natural hedge ratio of 41.9% (FY2013: 57.4%), which indicates the level of purchases and major operating expenses that are denominated in the functional currency of the operating units.

The Group closely monitors its macro operating environment and will consider adopting appropriate hedging policies to mitigate the exchange risk exposure, if necessary.

Political and Regulatory Consideration

The Group's sales are generated mainly from developing markets such as Russia, Ukraine, Kazakhstan and CIS countries, where political, social, economic and regulatory uncertainties may have a direct or indirect impact on sales and profitability.

During the financial year ended 31 December 2014, escalating sociopolitical tensions in two of its key markets, Russia and Ukraine triggered off significant foreign exchange devaluation of their respective currencies, the Russian Ruble and Ukrainian Hryvnia. Consequently, the Group experienced significant foreign exchange losses for the year.

The political conflict is ongoing and has resulted in economic difficulties for both countries. Its largest market, Russia, was affected by certain international sanctions and weak global oil prices, while Ukraine has suffered economic degradation due to conflicts with armed separatists in its Eastern region.

The Group will closely monitor ongoing events and may consider rationalising some operations if the situation deteriorates further.

The Group is also subjected to changes in policies by the respective government authorities of these regions, which may have an impact through (i) changes in laws and regulations; (ii) change in custom and import tariff; (iii) restrictions on currency conversions and remittances; and (iv) stability of the banking system.

(iii) Risk Management Policies and Processes (cont'd)

Political and Regulatory Consideration (cont'd)

In particular, the taxation system in the Russia market continues to evolve and is characterised by frequent changes in legislation, pronouncements and court decisions, which are subject to different interpretation.

The Group has representative offices in its major markets and is constantly updated on developments in government policy and regulation, allowing it to respond promptly to any policy changes that might affect sales.

Credit Risk of Customers

In the normal course of its business, the Group extends credit terms to its customers, primarily to those located in developing countries. In the event of any significant devaluation or depreciation of the currencies of these markets or if any major customer encounters financial difficulties, the Group would be exposed to the risk of non-collectability of some of its trade receivables.

The Group has a credit policy in place and exposure to credit risk is monitored on an ongoing basis. Management believes that concentration of credit risk is limited due to the ongoing evaluation of all customers.

Fluctuation in Raw Material Prices

Instant coffee powder, creamer, sugar and packaging materials are the main raw materials used for the Group's products. Due to the competitive nature of the instant beverage industry, the Group may not be able to pass on increases in raw material prices to its customers. Therefore any major increase in raw material prices may adversely affect profitability. There is no regulated commodity market for trading of these raw materials. The Group monitors the movements of raw materials prices closely and keeps in regular contact with its major suppliers. The Group's policy is to source from multiple suppliers where possible, so as to reduce dependency on any single source of supply.

The Group has embarked on a number of upstream projects to mitigate some of the uncertainties in commodities prices in the longer term and also build new capabilities. Two of its plants, a non-dairy creamer and a snack factory were completed during the financial year. A third plant which will produce instant coffee powder is still in the process of construction as at the end of 31 December 2014.

Intellectual Property Risks

Third parties may unlawfully copy and use the Group's intellectual property. Policing such unauthorised use is difficult and the law on intellectual property rights and protection in some countries may not be as developed as others. Unauthorised use of trademarks, service marks, copyrights, trade secrets and other intellectual property may damage the brand and the name recognition of the Group and its credibility. The Group relies on trademark laws to protect its marks in countries that it operates in. The Group has filed for registration of trademarks in countries where its products are marketed and distributed. The Group will take a strong stand on infringement and will take legal action to protect its intellectual property against counterfeit products and those who have unlawfully made use of its registered trademarks.

Dependence on Key Personnel

The Executive Directors and the country/general managers in the Group's key markets have contributed significantly to the success of the Group. The loss of the services of any one of these key personnel without adequate replacement will adversely affect the Group's operations and financial performance.

The Group has implemented remuneration packages aimed at retaining existing personnel and rewards for key management personnel who contribute to the success of the Group.

2.1 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group and the balance sheet and statement of changes in equity of the Company have been prepared in accordance with Singapore Financial Reporting Standards ("FRS").

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis except as disclosed in the accounting policies below.

The Company's functional currency is Singapore Dollars ("S$" or "SGD") while the financial statements are presented in United States Dollars ("US$" or "USD"). The Group adopted USD as the presentation currency as it is more reflective of the business operations of the Group, where transactions are mostly in USD.

All values in the tables are rounded to the nearest thousand (US$'000), except when otherwise stated.

2.2 Changes in accounting policies

The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial year except in the current financial year, the Group has adopted all the new and revised standards which are effective for annual financial periods beginning on or after 1 January 2014. The adoption of these standards and interpretations did not have any effect on the financial performance or position of the Group and the Company.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2014

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.3 Standards issued but not yet effective (cont'd)

Amendments to FRS 27 Equity Method in Separate Financial Statements

Amendments to FRS 27 are effective for financial periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016. These amendments allow the equity method as an accounting option for investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures in an entity's separate financial statements. Upon adoption of Amendments to FRS 27, the dividend is recognised in profit or loss unless the entity elects to use the equity method, in which case the dividend is recognised as a reduction from the carrying amount of the investment.

FRS 115 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

FRS 115 is effective for financial periods beginning on or after 1 January 2017. FRS 115 establishes a five-step model that apply to revenue earned from a contract with a customer (with limited exceptions), regardless of the type of revenue transaction or the industry. The standard's requirements will also apply to the recognition and measurement of gains and losses on the sale of some non-financial assets that are not an output of the entity's ordinary activities (e.g., sales of property, plant and equipment or intangibles).

Extensive disclosures will be required, including disaggregation of total revenue; information about performance obligations; changes in contract asset and liability account balances between periods and key judgements and estimates.

FRS 109 Financial Instruments

FRS 109 is effective for financial periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018. FRS 109 uses a single approach to determine whether a financial asset is measured at amortised cost or fair value, replacing the many different rules in FRS 39. The approach in FRS 109 is based on how an entity manages its financial instruments (its business model) and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets, and enables companies to reflect their risk management activities better in their financial statements, and, in turn, help investors to understand the effect of those activities on future cash flows. FRS 109 is principle-based, and will more closely align hedge accounting with risk management activities undertaken by companies when hedging their financial and non-financial risk exposures. The impairment requirements in FRS 109 are based on an expected credit loss model and replace the FRS 39 incurred loss model.

The Group is currently evaluating the impact of the changes and assessing whether the adoption of Amendments to FRS 27, FRS 115 and FRS 109 will have an impact on the Group.

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combination

(a) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries as at the end of the reporting period. The financial statements of the subsidiaries used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements are prepared for the same reporting date as the Company. Consistent accounting policies are applied to like transactions and events in similar circumstances.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2014

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combination (cont'd)

(a) Basis of consolidation (cont'd)

All intra-group balances, income and expenses and unrealised gains and losses resulting from intra-group transactions and dividends are eliminated in full.

Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date of acquisition, being the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Losses within a subsidiary are attributed to the non-controlling interest even if that results in a deficit balance.

A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction. If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it:

- De-recognises the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary at their carrying amounts at the date when controls is lost:
- De-recognises the carrying amount of any non-controlling interest;
- De-recognises the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity;
- Recognises the fair value of the consideration received;
- Recognises the fair value of any investment retained;
- Recognises any surplus or deficit in profit or loss;
- Re-classifies the Group's share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income to profit or loss or retained earnings, as appropriate.

(b) Business combinations and goodwill

Business combinations are accounted for by applying the acquisition method. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. Acquisition-related costs are recognised as expenses in the periods in which the costs are incurred and the services are received.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer will be recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the contingent consideration which is deemed to be an asset or liability, will be recognised in profit or loss.

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combination (cont'd)

(b) Business combinations and goodwill (cont'd)

The Group elects for each individual business combination, whether non-controlling interest in the acquiree (if any), that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of net assets in the event of liquidation, is recognised on the acquisition date at fair value, or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. Other components of non-controlling interests are measured at their acquisition date fair value, unless another measurement basis is required by another FRS.

Any excess of the sum of the fair value of the consideration transferred in the business combination, the amount of non-controlling interest in the acquiree (if any), and the fair value of the Group's previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any), over the net fair value of the acquiree's identifiable assets and liabilities is recorded as goodwill. In instances where the latter amount exceeds the former, the excess is recognised as gain on bargain purchase in profit or loss on the acquisition date.

Goodwill is initially measured at cost. Following initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to the Group's cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the acquiree are assigned to those units.

The cash-generating units to which goodwill have been allocated is tested for impairment annually and whenever there is an indication that the cash-generating unit may be impaired. Impairment is determined for goodwill by assessing the recoverable amount of each cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) to which the goodwill relates.

2.5 Transactions with non-controlling interests

Non-controlling interest represents the equity in subsidiaries not attributable, directly or indirectly, to owners of the Company.

Changes in the Company's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions. In such circumstances, the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interest is adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to owners of the Company.

2.6 Foreign currency

The Group's consolidated financial statements are presented in United States Dollars. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency.

(a) Transactions and balances

Transactions in foreign currencies are measured in the respective functional currencies of the Company and its subsidiaries and are recorded on initial recognition in the functional currencies at exchange rates approximating those ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rate of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates as at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on translating monetary items at the balance sheet date are recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Consolidated financial statements

For consolidation purpose, the assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into USD at the rate of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date and their profit or loss are translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the date of the transactions. The exchange differences arising on the translation are recognised in other comprehensive income. On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of other comprehensive income relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in profit or loss.

In the case of a partial disposal without loss of control of a subsidiary that includes a foreign operation, the proportionate share of the cumulative amount of the exchange differences are re-attributed to non-controlling interest and are not recognised in profit or loss. For partial disposals of associates or jointly controlled entities that are foreign operations, the proportionate share of the accumulated exchange differences is reclassified to profit or loss.

2.7 Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an investee that is controlled by the Group. The Group controls an investee when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee.

In the Company's separate financial statements, investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment losses.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2014

2.8 Associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but does not have control or joint control of those policies.

The Group account for its investments in associates using the equity method from the date on which it becomes an associate.

On acquisition of the investment, any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the investee's identifiable assets and liabilities is accounted as goodwill and is included in the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the investee's identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of the investment is included as income in the determination of the entity's share of the associate's profit or loss in the period in which the investment is acquired.

Under the equity method, the investment in associates are carried in the balance sheet at cost plus post-acquisition changes in the Group's share of net assets of the associates. The profit or loss reflects the share of results of the operations of the associates. Distributions received from associates reduce the carrying amount of the investment. Where there has been a change recognised in other comprehensive income by the associates, the Group recognises its share of such changes in other comprehensive income. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and associate are eliminated to the extent of the interest in the associates.

When the Group's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

After application of the equity method, the Group determines whether it is necessary to recognise an additional impairment loss on the Group's investment in associate. The Group determines at the end of each reporting period whether there is any objective evidence that the investment in the associate is impaired. If this is the case, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the associate and its carrying value and recognises the amount in profit or loss.

The financial statements of the associates are prepared as the same reporting date as the Company. Where necessary, adjustments are made to bring the accounting policies in line with those of the Group.

2.9 Property, plant and equipment

All items of property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Subsequent to recognition, property, plant and equipment other than freehold land and buildings are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses.

Freehold and leasehold properties are measured at fair value less accumulated depreciation on buildings and impairment losses recognised after the date of the revaluation. Valuations are performed with sufficient regularity to ensure that the carrying amount does not differ materially from the fair value of the freehold and leasehold properties at the balance sheet date.

Any revaluation surplus is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the asset revaluation reserve, except to the extent that it reverses a revaluation decrease of the same asset previously recognised in profit or loss, in which case the increase is recognised in profit or loss. A revaluation deficit is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it offsets an existing surplus on the same asset carried in the asset revaluation reserve.

Any accumulated depreciation as at the revaluation date is eliminated against the gross carrying amount of the asset and the net amount is restated to the revalued amount of the asset. The revaluation surplus included in the asset revaluation reserve in respect of an asset is transferred directly to retained earnings on retirement or disposal of the asset.

Freehold land has an unlimited useful life and therefore is not depreciated.

Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Freehold properties - 50 years

Leasehold properties - Over the remaining term of lease between 1 to 60 years

Plant and machinery - 5 – 10 years
Furniture and fittings and other equipment - 3 – 15 years
Factory and office equipment - 5 – 10 years
Computers - 3 – 5 years
Motor vehicles - 3 – 5 years

Forklifts - 10 years

Renovation, air-conditioners, electrical installation

and leasehold improvements - 5 – 10 years

2.9 Property, plant and equipment (cont'd)

Capital work-in-progress included in property, plant and equipment are not depreciated as these assets are not yet available for use.

The carrying values of property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable.

The residual value, useful life and depreciation method are reviewed at each financial year-end, and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss on derecognition of the asset is included in profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognised.

2.10 Investment properties

Investment properties are properties that are owned by the Group that are held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation, or both, rather than for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes, or in the ordinary course of business. Investment properties comprise completed investment properties and properties that are being constructed or developed for future use as investment properties.

Investment properties are initially recorded at cost, including transaction costs. The carrying amount includes the cost of replacing part of an existing investment property at the time that cost is incurred if the recognition criteria are met.

Depreciation is calculated using straight-line method to allocate the depreciable amounts over the estimated useful lives of 50 years. The residual values, useful lives and depreciation method of investment properties are reviewed, and adjusted as appropriate, at each balance sheet date. The effects of any revision are included in profit or loss when the changes arise.

Investment properties are derecognised when either they have been disposed off or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from its disposal. Any gains or losses on the retirement or disposal of an investment property are recognised in profit or loss in the vear of retirement or disposal.

2.11 Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured initially at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is their fair value as at the date of acquisition. Following initial acquisition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses. Internally generated intangible assets, excluding capitalised development costs, are not capitalised and expenditure is reflected in the profit or loss in the year in which the expenditure is incurred.

The useful lives of the intangible assets are assessed as either finite or indefinite.

Intangible assets with finite useful lives are amortised over the estimated useful lives and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation period and the amortisation method are reviewed at least at each financial year-end. Changes in the expected useful life or the expected pattern of consumption of future economic benefits embodied in the asset is accounted for by changing the amortisation period or method, as appropriate, and are treated as changes in accounting estimates.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives or not yet available for use are tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if the events and circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired either individually or at the cash-generating unit level. Such intangible assets are not amortised. The useful life of an intangible asset with an indefinite useful life is reviewed annually to determine whether the useful life assessment continues to be supportable. If not, the change in useful life from indefinite to finite is made on a prospective basis.

Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised.

Brand

The brand was acquired in a business combination. The useful life of the brand is estimated to be indefinite because based on the current market share of the brand, management believes there is no foreseeable limit to the period over which the brand is expected to generate net cash inflows for the Group.

2.12 Financial instruments

(a) Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are recognised when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. The Group determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition.

When financial assets are recognised initially, they are measured at fair value, plus, in the case of financial assets not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

(i) Loans and receivables

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market are classified as loans and receivables. Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the loans and receivables are derecognised or impaired, and through the amortisation process.

(ii) Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets include equity and debt securities. Equity investments classified as available-for-sale are those, which are neither classified as held for trading nor designated at fair value through profit or loss. Debt securities in this category are those which are intended to be held for an indefinite period of time and which may be sold in response to needs for liquidity or in response to changes in the market conditions.

After initial recognition, available-for-sale financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Any gains or losses from changes in fair value of the financial asset are recognised in other comprehensive income, except that impairment losses, foreign exchange gains and losses on monetary instruments and interest calculated using the effective interest method are recognised in profit or loss. The cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment when the financial asset is derecognised.

Investments in equity instruments whose fair value cannot be reliably measured are measured at cost less impairment loss.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.12 Financial instruments (cont'd)

Derecognition

A financial asset is derecognised where the contractual right to receive cash flows from the asset has expired. On derecognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and any cumulative gain or loss that had been recognised in other comprehensive income is recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are recognised when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. The Group determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value, plus, in the case of financial liabilities not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

After initial recognition, financial liabilities that are not carried at fair value through profit or loss are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised, and through the amortisation process.

Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability, and the difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.13 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when an annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount.

An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or group of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset or cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

Impairment losses of continuing operations are recognised in profit or loss, except for assets that are previously revalued where the revaluation was taken to other comprehensive income. In this case, the impairment is also recognised in other comprehensive income up to the amount of any previous revaluation.

A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. If that is the case, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to its recoverable amount. That increase cannot exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised previously. Such reversal is recognised in profit or loss unless the asset is measured at revalued amount, in which case the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

2.14 Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired.

(a) Financial assets carried at amortised cost

For financial assets carried at amortised cost, the Group first assesses whether objective evidence of impairment exists individually for financial assets that are individually significant, or collectively for financial assets that are not individually significant. If the Group determines that no objective evidence of impairment exists for an individually assessed financial asset, whether significant or not, it includes the asset in a group of financial assets with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assesses them for impairment. Assets that are individually assessed for impairment and for which an impairment loss is, or continues to be recognised are not included in a collective assessment of impairment.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.14 Impairment of financial assets (cont'd)

(a) Financial assets carried at amortised cost (cont'd)

If there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on financial assets carried at amortised cost has incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. If a loan has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account. The impairment loss is recognised in the profit or loss.

When the asset becomes uncollectible, the carrying amount of impaired financial assets is reduced directly or if an amount was charged to the allowance account, the amounts charged to the allowance account are written off against the carrying value of the financial asset.

To determine whether there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on financial assets has been incurred, the Group considers factors such as the probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the debtor and default or significant delay in payments.

If in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is reversed to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its amortised cost at the reversal date. The amount of reversal is recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Financial assets carried at cost

If there is objective evidence (such as significant adverse changes in the business environment where the issuer operates, probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the issuer) that an impairment loss on financial assets carried at cost has been incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset. Such impairment losses are not reversed in subsequent periods.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2014

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.14 Impairment of financial assets (cont'd)

(c) Available-for-sale financial assets

In the case of equity investments classified as available-for-sale, objective evidence of impairment include (i) significant financial difficulty of the issuer or obligor, (ii) information about significant changes with an adverse effect that have taken place in the technological, market, economic or legal environment in which the issuer operates, and indicates that the cost of the investment in equity instrument may not be recovered; and (iii) a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the investment below its costs.

If an available-for-sale financial asset is impaired, an amount comprising the difference between its acquisition cost (net of any principal repayment and amortisation) and its current fair value, less any impairment loss previously recognised in profit or loss, is transferred from other comprehensive income and recognised in profit or loss. Reversals of impairment losses in respect of equity instruments are not recognised in profit or loss; increase in their fair value after impairment are recognised directly in other comprehensive income.

In the case of debt instruments classified as available-for-sale, impairment is assessed based on the same criteria as financial assets carried at amortised cost. However, the amount recorded for impairment is the cumulative loss measured as the difference between the amortised cost and the current fair value, less any impairment loss on that investment previously recognised in profit or loss. Future interest income continues to be accrued based on the reduced carrying amount of the asset, using the rate of interest used to discount the future cash flows for the purpose of measuring the impairment loss. The interest income is recorded as part of finance income. If, in a subsequent year, the fair value of a debt instrument increases and the increase can be objectively related to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognised in profit or loss, the impairment loss is reversed in profit or loss.

2.15 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and cash with banks or financial institutions, including fixed deposits and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amount of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. These also include bank overdrafts that form an integral part of the Group's cash management.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.16 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition are accounted for as follows:

- Raw materials: costs of direct materials and goods purchased for resale are stated on a weighted average basis.
- Finished goods and work-in-progress: costs of direct materials and labour and a proportion of manufacturing overheads based on normal operating capacity. These costs are assigned on a weighted average basis.

Where necessary, allowance is provided for damaged, obsolete and slow moving items to adjust the carrying value of inventories to the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

2.17 Provisions

General

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and the amount of the obligation can be estimated reliably.

Provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. If it is no longer probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required to settle the obligation, the provision is reversed. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

2.18 Government grants

Government grants shall be recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the entity recognises as expenses, the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. Grants related to income may be presented as a credit in profit or loss, either separately or under a general heading such as "Other income".

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.19 Financial guarantee

A financial guarantee contract is a contract that requires the issuer to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument.

Financial guarantees are recognised initially as a liability at fair value, adjusted for transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issuance of the guarantee. Subsequent to initial recognition, financial guarantees are recognised as income in profit or loss over the period of the guarantee. If it is probable that the liability will be higher than the amount initially recognised less amortisation, the liability is recorded at the higher amount with the difference charged to profit or loss.

2.20 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are capitalised as part of the cost of a qualifying asset if they are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of that asset. Capitalisation of borrowing costs commences when the activities to prepare the asset for its intended use or sale are in progress and the expenditures and borrowing costs are incurred. Borrowing costs are capitalised until the assets are substantially completed for their intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

2.21 Leases

(a) As lessee

Finance leases which transfer to the Group substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalised at the inception of the lease at the fair value of the leased asset or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. Any initial direct costs are also added to the amount capitalised. Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are charged to profit or loss. Contingent rents, if any, are charged as expenses in the periods in which they are incurred.

Capitalised leased assets are depreciated over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset and the lease term, if there is no reasonable certainty that the Group will obtain ownership by the end of the lease term.

Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The aggregate benefit of incentives provided by the lessor is recognised as a reduction of rental expense over the lease term on a straight-line basis.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.21 Leases (cont'd)

(b) As lessor

Leases where the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same bases as rental income. The accounting policy for rental income is set out in Note 2.23(b). Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

2.22 Non-current assets held for sale

Non-current assets and disposal groups classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. Non-current assets and disposal groups are classified as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use.

Property, plant and equipment and intangible assets once classified as held for sale are not depreciated or amortised.

2.23 Revenue

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be reliably measured, regardless of when the payment is made. Revenue is measured at the fair value of consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payment and excluding taxes or duty.

(a) Sale of goods

Revenue from sale of goods is recognised upon the transfer of significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods to the customer, usually on delivery of goods. Revenue is not recognised to the extent where there are significant uncertainties regarding recovery of the consideration due, associated costs or the possible return of goods.

(b) Rental income

Rental income arising from operating leases in investment properties is accounted for on a time apportionment basis over the lease terms. The aggregate costs of incentives provided to lessees are recognised as a reduction of rental income over the lease term on a straight-line basis.

(c) Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the Group's right to receive the payment is established.

(d) Interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2014

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.23 Revenue (cont'd)

(e) Royalty income

Royalty income is recognised on an accrual basis in accordance with the substance of the relevant agreements.

(f) Marketing service income

Marketing service income is recognised when services are rendered.

(g) Packaging service income

Packaging service income is recognised when services are rendered.

2.24 Employee benefits

(a) Defined contribution plans

The Group participates in the national pension schemes as defined by the laws of the countries in which it has operations. In particular, the Singapore companies in the Group make contributions to the Central Provident Fund scheme in Singapore, a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions to defined contribution pension schemes are recognised as an expense in the period in which the related service is performed.

(b) Employee leave entitlement

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised as a liability when they accrue to the employees. The estimated liability for leave is recognised for services rendered by employees up to the balance sheet date.

(c) Termination benefit

Termination benefits are employee benefits provided in exchange for the termination of an employee's employment as a result of either an entity's decision to terminate an employee's employment before the normal retirement date or an employee's decision to accept an offer of benefits in exchange for the termination of employment.

A liability and expense for a termination benefits is recognised at the earlier of when the entity can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits and when the entity recognises related restructuring costs. Initial recognition and subsequent changes to termination benefits are measured in accordance with the nature of the employment benefits, short-term employee benefits, or other long-term employee benefits.

2.24 Employee benefits (cont'd)

(d) Employee equity compensation benefits

Employee share option plans

Employees (including senior executives and Directors) of the Group receive remuneration in the form of share options as consideration for services rendered ('equity-settled share based payment transactions').

The cost of these equity-settled share based payment transactions with employees is measured by reference to the fair value of the options at the date on which the options are granted which takes into account market condition and non-vesting conditions. This cost is recognised in profit or loss, with a corresponding increase in the share-based payment reserve, over the vesting period. The cumulative expense recognised at each balance sheet date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of options that will ultimately vest. The charge or credit to profit or loss for a period represents the movement in cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period and is recognised in employee benefits expense.

2.25 Taxes

(a) Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date, in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income.

Current income taxes are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that the tax relates to items recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

2.25 Taxes (cont'd)

(b) Deferred tax

Deferred income tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences at the balance sheet date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all temporary differences, except:

- where the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, where the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised except:

- where the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2014

(b) Deferred tax (cont'd)

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at each balance sheet date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss. Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity and deferred tax arising from a business combination is adjusted against goodwill on acquisition.

(c) Sales tax

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of sales tax except:

- where the sales tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case the sales tax is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item as applicable; and
- receivables and payables that are stated with the amount of sales tax included.

2.26 Segment reporting

For management purposes, the Group is organised into operating segments based on their geographical locations which are independently managed by the respective segment managers responsible for the performance of the respective segments under their charge. The segment managers report directly to the management of the Company who regularly review the segment results in order to allocate resources to the segments and to assess the segment performance. Additional disclosures on each of these segments are shown in Note 33, including the factors used to identify the reportable segments and the measurement basis of segment information.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.27 Share capital and share issue expenses

Proceeds from issuance of ordinary shares are recognised as share capital in equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of ordinary shares are deducted against share capital.

2.28 Treasury shares

The Group's own equity instruments, which are reacquired (treasury shares) are recognised at costs and deducted from equity. No gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Group's own equity instruments. Any difference between the carrying amount of treasury shares and the consideration received, if reissued, is recognised directly in equity. Voting rights related to treasury shares are nullified for the Group and no dividends are allocated to them respectively.

2.29 Contingencies

A contingent liability is:

- a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group; or
- (b) a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because:
  - it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or
  - (ii) the amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group.

Contingent liabilities and assets are not recognised on the balance sheet of the Group, except for contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination that are present obligations and which the fair values can be reliably determined.

3. Significant accounting estimates and judgments

The preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the balance sheet date. However, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset or liability affected in the future periods.

3.1 Judgments made in applying accounting policies

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgments, apart from those involving estimations, which has the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements:

(a) Determination of lease classification

The Group has entered into commercial property leases on its investment properties. The Group evaluated the terms and conditions of the arrangements and assessed that the lease term does not constitute a substantial portion of the economic life of the commercial property and the minimum lease payment is not substantially all of the fair value of the leased asset. The Group determined that it retains all the significant risks and rewards of ownership of these properties and so accounts for the contracts as operating leases.

(b) Determination of functional currency

The Group measures foreign currency transactions in the respective functional currencies of the Company and its subsidiaries. In determining the functional currencies of the entities in the Group, judgement is required to determine the currency that mainly influences sales prices for goods and services and of the country whose competitive forces and regulations mainly determines the sales prices of its goods and services. The functional currencies of the entities in the Group are determined based on management's assessment of the economic environment in which the entities operate and the entities' process of determining sales prices. Management has assessed that prices are mainly denominated and settled in the respective local currency of the entities of the Group. In addition, most of the entities' cost base is mainly denominated in their respective local currency. Therefore, management concluded that the functional currency of the entities of the Group is their respective local currency.

3.2 Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the balance sheet date are discussed below. The Group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising beyond the control of the Group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

3. Significant accounting estimates and judgments (cont'd)

3.2 Key sources of estimation uncertainty (cont'd)

(a) Impairment of intangible assets

As disclosed in Note 16 to the financial statements, the recoverable amounts of the cash generating units which goodwill and brands have been allocated to are determined based on value in use calculations. The value in use calculations are based on a discounted cash flow models. The recoverable amount is most sensitive to the discount rate used for the discounted cash flow model as well as the expected future cash inflows and the growth rate used for extrapolation purposes. The key assumptions applied in the determination of the value in use are disclosed and further explained in Note 16 to the financial statements.

(b) Deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all unused tax losses to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the losses can be utilised. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the timing and level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies. In determining the timing and level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies, the Group assessed the probability of expected future cash inflows based on expected revenues from existing orders and contracts for the next 10 years.

Where taxable profits are expected in the foreseeable future, deferred tax assets are recognised on the unused tax losses. The carrying value of recognised tax losses at 31 December 2014 was US$25,306,000 (2013: US$1,014,000) and the unrecognised tax losses at 31 December 2014 was US$21,801,000 (2013: US$10,693,000).

If the Group was able to recognise all unrecognised deferred tax assets, (loss)/profit would increase by US$4,498,000 (2013: US$2,281,000).

(c) Impairment of loans and receivables

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired. Factors such as the probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the debtor and default or significant delay in payments are objective evidence of impairment. In determining whether there is objective evidence of impairment, the Group considers whether there is observable data indicating that there have been significant changes in the debtor's payment ability or whether there have been significant changes with adverse effect in the technological, market, economic or legal environment in which the debtor operates in.

3. Significant accounting estimates and judgments (cont'd)

3.2 Key sources of estimation uncertainty (cont'd)

(c) Impairment of loans and receivables (cont'd)

Where there is objective evidence of impairment, the amount and timing of future cash flows are estimated based on historical loss experience for assets with similar credit risk characteristics. The carrying amount of the Group's loans and receivables at the end of the reporting period is disclosed in Note 24 to the financial statements. If the present value of estimated future cash flows decrease by 10% from management's estimates, the Group's allowance for impairment will increase by US$4,088,000 (2013: increase by US$5,190,000).

11. (Loss)/earnings per share

(a) Basic (loss)/earnings per share

Basic (loss)/earnings per share are calculated by dividing the (loss)/profit for the year from continuing operations, net of tax, attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year.

The following table reflects the (loss)/profit and share data used in the computation of basic (loss)/earnings per share for the years ended 31 December:

	Group
	2014 US$'000	2013 US$'000

Weighted average number of ordinary shares for basic (loss)/earnings per share computation	532,736	532,594

(b) Diluted (loss)/earnings per share

Diluted (loss)/earnings per share are calculated by dividing the (loss)/profit for the year (after deducting dividends) from continuing operations, net of tax, attributable to original equity shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year plus the weighted average number of ordinary shares that would be issued on the conversion of all the dilutive potential ordinary shares into ordinary shares.

Effect of dilution: Weighted average number of unissued ordinary shares under option	_	11,141
Number of shares that would have been issued at fair value	_	(6,789)
Weighted average number of ordinary shares adjusted for the effect of dilution which is used for diluted (loss)/earnings per share computation*	532,736	536,946

There is no dilution of (loss)/earnings per share for the financial year ended 31 December 2014 as the Group is in a net loss position.

In the financial year ended 31 December 2013, there are 4,880,000 share options granted to employees under the existing employee share options plans that have not been included in the calculations of diluted (loss)/earnings per share because they are anti-dilutive.

Since the end of the financial year, there have been no other transaction involving ordinary shares or potential ordinary shares that would have changed significantly the ordinary shares or potentially ordinary shares outstanding at the end of the period if those transactions had occurred before the end of the reporting period.

Impairment testing of goodwill and brand

Goodwill and brand acquired through business combinations have been allocated to the Group's cash-generating units ("CGU") identified according to each individual business unit for impairment testing.

The carrying amounts of goodwill and brands allocated to each CGU are as follows:

		Group
	2014 _US$'000	2013 US$'000
FER (HK) Limited Group FES Industries Pte Ltd and Empire Manufacturing Sdn Bhd Brand	4,797 1,887 3,659 10,343	4,797 1,887 6,659 13,343

16. Intangible assets (cont'd)

The recoverable amount of the CGUs have been determined based on value-in-use calculations using cash flow projections from financial budgets approved by management covering a five-year period. The pre-tax discount rate applied to the cash flow projections and the forecasted growth rate used to extrapolate cash flow projections beyond the five-year period are as follows:

			FES Inc	dustries
			Pte	Ltd
	and Empire
	FEF	R (HK)	Manufa	acturing
	Limited Group		Sdn Bhd (1)		Brand
	2014	2013	2014	2013	2014	2013
Growth rates	1.0%	2.5%	1.0%	1.0%	0.68%	2.5%
Pre-tax discount rates	15.0%	14.0%	5.4%	8.7%	16.5%	14.0%

Key assumptions used in the value-in-use calculations

The calculations of value-in-use for the CGU's are most sensitive to the following assumptions:

Forecasted sales values – For the first 5 years of forecasted growth, sales values are based on actual values achieved in the years preceding the start of the budget period. These are adjusted over the budget period of the next 5 years resulting from increased advertising and promotional effects. An average of 5% (2013: 9%) for brand per annum was applied. A range of 5% to 13% (2013: 7% to 17%) for goodwill per annum were applied.

Growth rates – The forecasted growth rates beyond the 5-year period are based on published industry research and do not exceed the long-term average growth rate for the mature industry that the CGU is in.

Pre-tax discount rates – Discount rates represent the current market assessment of the risks specific to each CGU, regarding the time value of money and individual risks of the underlying assets which have not been incorporated in the cash flow estimates. The discount rate calculation is based on the specific circumstances of the Group and its operating segments and derived from its weighted average cost of capital (WACC). The WACC takes into account both debt and equity. The cost of equity is derived from the expected return on investment by the Group's investors. The cost of debt is based on the interest bearing borrowings the Group is obliged to service. Segment-specific risk is incorporated by applying individual beta factors. The beta factors are evaluated annually based on publicly available market data.

Sensitivity to changes in assumptions

With regards to the assessment of value-in-use for the CGUs, management believes that no reasonably possible change in any of the above key assumptions would cause the recoverable amounts of the units to materially fall below its carrying amount.

Impairment loss recognised

The brand is regarded as having indefinite useful life and is not amortised. The brand value recognised will be tested for impairment annually.

During the financial year, the Group recognised an impairment loss charge of US$3,000,000 (2013: Nil) on its brand - Petrovskaya Sloboda (acquired in 2007), reducing the carrying amount of the brand to US$3,659,000 (2013: US$6,659,000). The impairment loss charge is recorded in the profit and loss under the line item "Other operating expenses".

The Group regularly reviews each business segment results for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. #### 36. Fair value of financial instruments

(a) Fair value of hierarchy

The Group categorises fair value measurement using a fair value hierarchy that is dependent on the valuation input used as follows:

(i) Level 1 – Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Group can access at the measurement date;

For the financial year ended 31 December 2014

36. Fair value of financial instruments (cont'd)

- (a) Fair value of hierarchy (cont'd)
  - (ii) Level 2 Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices); and
  - (iii) Level 3 Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

Fair value measurements that use inputs at different hierarchy levels are categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

There have been no transfers between Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3 fair value measurements during the financial years ended 2014 and 2013.

The following table shows an analysis of financial instruments carried at fair value at the end of the reporting period:

Quoted prices

36. Fair value of financial instruments (cont'd)

(b) Fair value of financial instruments by classes that are not carried at fair value and whose carrying amounts are reasonable approximation of fair value

The carrying amount of trade and other receivables, cash and cash equivalents, amount due from subsidiaries (non-trade), amount due from associates (non-trade), amount due from related parties (trade), trade and other payables, current finance lease creditors, and current interest-bearing loans and borrowing, amounts due to subsidiaries (non-trade) and amounts due to associates (trade and non-trade) are reasonable approximation of fair values due to their short-term nature.

The carrying amount of non-current finance lease creditors and non-current interest-bearing loans and borrowings are reasonable approximation of fair values as their interest rate approximate the market lending rate.

(c) Assets not carried at fair value but for which fair value is disclosed

(i) Information about significant unobservable inputs used in Level 3 fair value measurements

The significant non-financial asset of the Group categorised within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy is investment properties. Generally, the fair values of investment properties are determined annually by independent professional valuers. The carrying amount of the investment properties is disclosed in Note 13.

The following table shows the valuation techniques used in measuring significant Level 3 fair values, as well as the significant unobservable inputs used.

Change in valuation technique

The valuation technique used to value the property at 81 Playfair Road, Singapore 367999 ("property"), was changed from cost method for the financial year ended 31 December 2013 to market comparison method for the financial year ended 31 December 2014. The property was under construction in 2013, therefore cost approach was used due to the absence of direct comparative data. As the property was in the final stages of construction in 2014, the market comparison method was a more accurate approach to value the property.

36. Fair value of financial instruments (cont'd)

- (c) Assets not carried at fair value but for which fair value is disclosed (cont'd)
  - (i) Valuation policies and procedures

For all significant financial reporting valuations using valuation models and significant unobservable inputs, it is the Group's policy to engage external valuation experts who possess the relevant credentials and knowledge on the subject of valuation, valuation methodologies and FRS 113 fair value measurement guidance to perform the valuation.

For valuations performed by external valuation experts, the appropriateness of the valuation methodologies and assumptions adopted are reviewed along with the appropriateness and reliability of the inputs used in the valuations.

In selecting the appropriate valuation models and inputs to be adopted for each valuation that uses significant non-observable inputs, external valuation experts are requested to calibrate the valuation models and inputs to actual market transactions (which may include transactions entered into by the Group with third parties as appropriate) that are relevant to the valuation if such information are reasonably available. For valuations that are sensitive to the unobservable inputs used, external valuation experts are required, to the extent practicable to use a minimum of two valuation approaches to allow for cross-checks.

Significant changes in fair value measurements from period to period are evaluated for reasonableness. Key drivers of the changes are identified and assessed for reasonableness against relevant information from independent sources, or internal sources if necessary and appropriate.

37. Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group and the Company are exposed to financial risks arising from its operations and the use of financial instruments. The key financial risks include credit risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk and foreign currency risk. The Board of Directors reviews and agrees policies and procedures for the management of these risks.

The Group and the Company does not apply hedge accounting.

The following sections provide details regarding the Group's and the Company's exposure to the above-mentioned financial risks and the objectives, policies and processes for the management of these risks.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2014

37. Financial risk management objectives and policies (cont'd)

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss that may arise on outstanding financial instruments should a counterparty default on its obligations. The Group's and the Company's exposure to credit risk arises primarily from trade and other receivables. For other financial assets (including cash and cash equivalents), the Group and the Company minimise credit risk by dealing with high credit rating counterparties.

The Group's objective is to seek continual revenue growth while minimising losses incurred due to increased credit risk exposure. The Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties. It is the Group's policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures. In addition, receivable balances are monitored on an ongoing basis with the result that the Group's exposure to bad debts is not significant.

The Group sells mainly to Russia, Ukraine, Kazakhstan and CIS countries. Hence, risk is concentrated on the trade receivables in these countries.

Exposure to credit risk

At the balance sheet date, the Group's and the Company's maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each financial assets in the balance sheets.

Credit risk concentration profile

The Group determines concentrations of credit risk by monitoring the country and industry sector profile of its trade receivables on an ongoing basis. The credit risk concentration profile of the Group's trade receivables at the balance sheet date is as follows:

	Group
	2014	2013
	US$'000	US$'000
By country:
Russia	19,626	26,453
Ukraine	5,706	7,296
Kazakhstan and CIS countries	8,285	10,088
Others	6,788	7,687
	40,405	51,524

Financial assets that are neither past due nor impaired

Trade and other receivables that are neither past due nor impaired are creditworthy debtors with good payment record with the Group. Cash and cash equivalents that are neither past due nor impaired are placed with or entered into with reputable financial institutions or companies with high credit ratings and no history of default.

(a) Credit risk (cont'd)

Financial assets that are either past due or impaired

Information regarding financial assets that are either past due or impaired is disclosed in Note 24.

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group or the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting financial obligations due to shortage of funds. The Group's and the Company's exposure to liquidity risk arises primarily from mismatches of the maturities of financial assets and liabilities.

At balance sheet date, approximately 21% (2013: 12%) of the Group's loans and borrowings will mature in less than one year based on the carrying amount reflected in the financial statements.

The Group monitors its liquidity risk and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed adequate by Management to finance the Group's operation and to mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows.

The table below summarises the maturity profile of the Group's and the Company's financial assets and liabilities at the balance sheet date based on contractual undiscounted repayment obligations.

(c) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of the Group's financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's and the Company's exposure to interest rate risk arises primarily from interest-bearing loans and borrowings. The Group monitors the interest rate on loans and borrowings closely to ensure that the loans and borrowings are maintained at favorable rate. At the balance sheet date, all of the Group's borrowings are at floating rates of interest.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity of the Group's profit net of tax to a reasonably possible change in interest rate, with all other variables held constant.

(d) Foreign currency risk

The Group has transactional currency exposures arising from sales, purchases or operating costs by operating units in currencies other than the unit's functional currency. Approximately 2.1% (2013: 1.5%) of the Group's sales are denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the operating unit making the sale, whilst 41.9% (2013: 57.4%) of purchases and operating costs are denominated in the unit's functional currency.

The management ensures that the net exposure is maintained at an acceptable level by buying and selling foreign currencies at spot rates where necessary to address short-term fluctuations.

Sensitivity analysis for foreign currency risk

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity of the Group's profit before tax to a reasonably possible change in the USD, SGD, EURO, Malaysia Ringgit (RM), Ukrainian Hryvnia (UAH), Russian Ruble (RUR) and Indian Rupee (INR) against the respective functional currencies of the Group entities, with all variables held constant.
