

FOOD EMPIRE OPENS NEW FOOD EMPIRE BUILDING

February 23, 2016 [Singapore]: Food Empire is pleased to announce the official opening of its new extension of the Food Empire Building in Singapore.

The new building is located at the fast growing urbanized Tai Seng area, which is adjacent to Food Empire's existing headquarters building at 31 Harrison Road, under Business 1 zone classified as light industrial use, housing 14 office units for lease.

The new Food Empire Building is designed with the concept to reinforce the burgeoning demand for space, flexibility and productivity. Open-air terraces are located across several floors, providing tenants additional al fresco and discussion spaces, creating an optimum workplace environment.

This 2494 square metre freehold property is owned by Food Empire Real Estates, a wholly owned subsidiary of Food Empire Holdings.
