Y Annualised Net Profit Growth”, and “3-Y Weighted Return on Equity” — emerging as the overall sector winner in the Consumer Defensive industry classification. This remarkable achievement cemented Food Empire’s position as the undisputed overall sector winner in the Consumer Defensive industry classification and a standout performer on the SGX-ST.

Food Empire’s Chief Executive Officer, Mr Sudeep Nair, said: “We are immensely proud to be crowned ‘Company of the Year’ – a landmark first for Food Empire that places us at the pinnacle of Singapore’s listed companies. This historic win is a powerful validation of our strategic vision and our team’s exceptional execution across global markets. With our financial performance on track for a fifth consecutive record year in FY2025, these awards are a strong affirmation of Food Empire’s proven business model and strategic approach, as well as our disciplined execution in brand building and market penetration. Our geographic diversification and proven resilience have positioned us for this success, and we are confident this momentum will propel us to even greater heights.”
